A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

by William Shakespeare

Spellbound lovers giddily chase each other through the woods by night, while hapless tradesmen engage in a hilarious struggle to master the art of classical acting. Both sets of bewildered humans find that anything can happen in a magical realm where mischievous spirits have the power to make asses of us all.

Falsely accused of treason, dashing young sailor Edmond Dantes is arrested on his wedding day and imprisoned in the dreaded Château d'If. Many years later, having staged a daring escape, he returns to seek vengeance on those who sought to destroy him. A classic swashbuckling adventure, newly adapted for the Avon stage.

A Musical Fable of Broadway
Based on a story and characters of Damon Runyon
Music and lyrics by Frank Loesser
Book by Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows

Though their worlds couldn't be more different, there's obvious chemistry between the street-smart gambler Sky Masterson and the strait-laced Salvation Army girl Sarah Brown. But even if love is in the cards, the same holds true of romance as at the racetrack: there's no such thing as a sure bet.

For her return to the stage, TV personality Dotty Otley unwisely chooses a typical British sex farce called Nothing On. In spite of scantily-clad ingénues, falling trousers and flapping bedroom doors, the real comedy – as Nothing On stumbles from dress rehearsal to provincial tour – lies in the chaos unfolding behind the scenes.

NOISES OFF

by Michael Frayn

Macbeth

by William Shakespeare

When the depraved ambition of a Scottish hero and his determined and devoted wife is ignited by the prophecies of three strange women, Macbeth and his Lady embark on a murderous journey, which throws Scotland into civil war and ends with the couple's bloody destruction.

The virtuous Imogen, daughter of King Cymbeline of Britain, is beset by enemies – including her own husband, who has been tricked by the villain Iachimo into believing her unfaithful. Fleeing to the wars disguised as a youth, Imogen has further tribulations to endure before fortune turns in her favour at last.

ANYTHING GOES

Music and lyrics by Cole Porter
Original book by P.G. Wodehouse and Guy Bolton, and Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse

Originally produced by Lincoln Center Theater, New York City

All aboard the SS American for a zany ocean voyage! As stowaway Billy Crocker, débutante Hope Harcourt and singer Reno Sweeney pursue their dreams of love – and the FBI pursues gangster Moonface Martin – the riotous comedy is punctuated by such Cole Porter classics as “You're the Top” and “I Get a Kick Out of You.”

With his lavish parties and extravagant gifts, the nobleman Timon has won himself crowds of flattering “friends” – and the scorn of the cynical philosopher Apemantus. But when his money runs out and his creditors close in, Timon discovers the colder side of the human heart – including his own.
